

CAMP: A Planning Retreat for Clergy

August 13-17, 2023, Lakeside, Montana

Is this for me?

Are you a pastor who is yearning for some time away to prepare worship for the year? Or are you a commissioned pastor/ruling elder excited about getting your creative worship juices flowing in a community of other leaders? If you are the key worship leader for your worshipping community, we hope you'll join us for a nurtured retreat where you can step aside for private or collaborative planning, along with moments to have your soul tended and minds sparked by worship and music guides.

Omaha Presbyterian Seminary Foundation's (OPSF) mission is to seek, develop, and support Presbyterian Church (USA) leaders in a thirteen state region in Middle America. Individuals from outside the region or another denomination may register after July 1 and as space is available.

What is offered?

At this CAMP, you choose what fuels your ministry, whether that is solitude or collaboration, or something in between. OPSF will provide the following:

- ▲ Morning and evening prayers to bookend your day in music, brief liturgy, and prayer
- ▲ A pre-CAMP guide providing a framework for the guided portions of the event. If you choose to journey through the lectionary alongside the Rev. Dr. Kim Long, our Worship Guide, she'll let you know ahead of time key components that will help structure your annual planning
- ▲ Fire-up – Fifteen-minute rapid-fire brainstorming sessions to get the creative juices flowing
- ▲ Frame – Overview of key themes of the lectionary
- ▲ Focus – Participants' selected areas of interest for support or collaboration. If there's a critical mass, we'll add it to the schedule
- ▲ Field Trip – Off-campus excursions for those who need to get out and about to get their juices flowing
- ▲ Free Time – Participants set their own agendas and may build in time to rest, paddle on beautiful Flathead Lake, hike in the neighboring State Park, or grab a table at a local coffee shop

Where is CAMP?

Glacier Presbytery Camp is located in Lakeside, Montana, thirty miles from Glacier International Airport, in Kalispell. Check it out at glaciercamp.org. Transportation will be provided to and from the airport between 3-6 PM, Sunday; and at the conclusion of the retreat on Thursday.

Glacier Camp is located on Flathead Lake, beside West Shore/Flathead Lake State Park. The west entrance of Glacier National Park is about an hour away for those wishing to extend their trip.
